

Foreigners Sentenced To Death In The Fight Against Terrorism

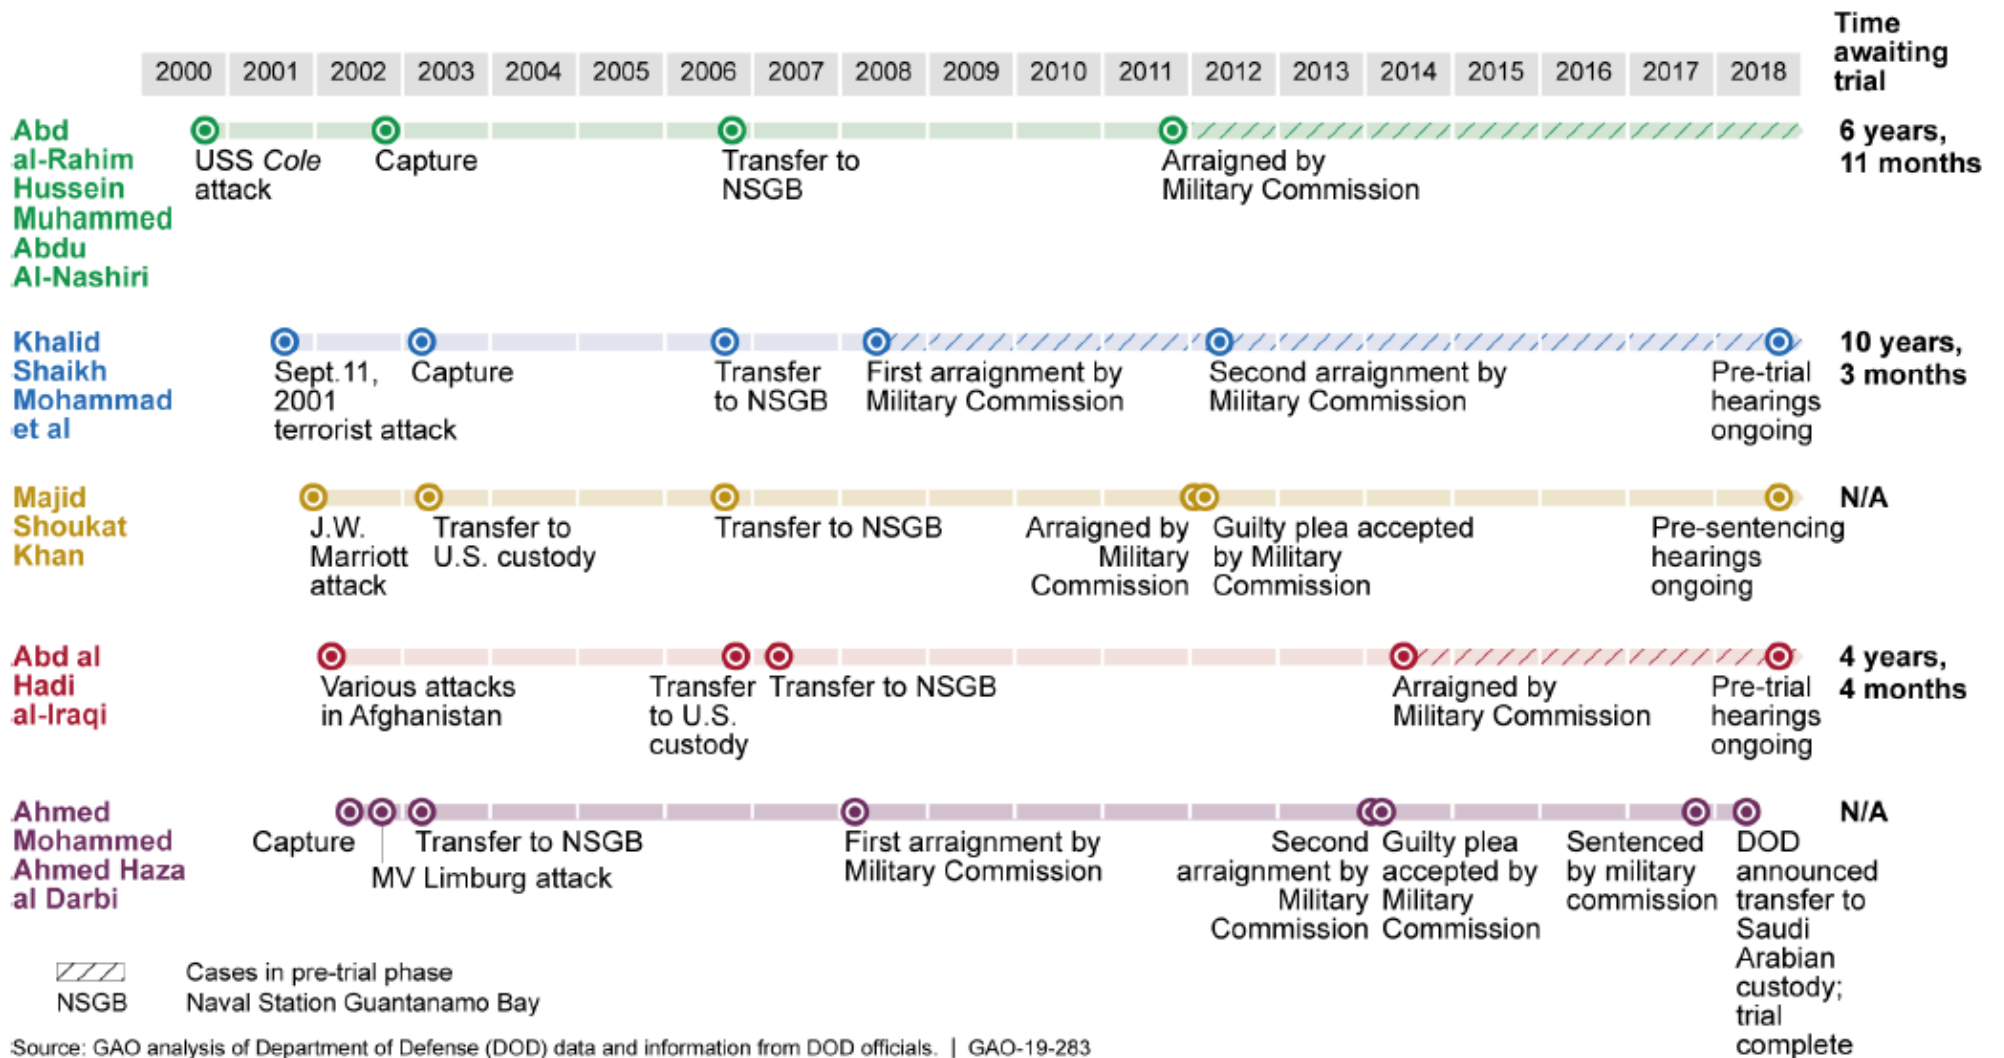

James Connell
Military Commissions Defense Organization
Guantanamo Bay, Cuba

Disclaimer

The Military Commissions Defense Organization is responsible for providing legal services to persons charged in a United States Military Commission. The Chief Defense Counsel has detailed James Connell, among others, as counsel for Mr. al Baluchi. This presentation does not represent the official position of the United States of America, the Department of Defense, or of any person other than its author and Mr. al Baluchi. This presentation is not based upon classified information, and should not be read to confirm or deny any information the United States considers classified.

Figure 6: Key Milestones for Five Active Military Commissions' Cases, Calendar Years 2000 to 2018

Overview of the Military Commissions

- Reserved for non-citizens of the United States

(10 U.S.C. § 948(c))

- Trial by military officers instead of jury

(10 U.S.C. § 948j)

- Permits statements obtained by coercion and compulsory self-incrimination

(10 U.S.C. § 948a(b)(3)(B))

- Permits hearsay evidence

(10 U.S.C. § 948a(B)(3)(D))

- No defense power to compel attendance of witnesses

(Rule for Military Commission 703)

How to Help

- Twitter
 - @GitmoWatch*
 - @BaluchiGitmo*
 - @CarolRosenberg*
- Travel to Guantanamo observer/media status
- International representation
- jconnell@connell-law.com